

Write a Traditional Blues Song

Write your name here:

Choose a topic:

The blues is usually about a frustrating circumstance. Examples: a bad day, lost love, feeling lonely, hard times, missing home, unfair treatment, trouble at work or school, health troubles, friendship woes, dreams, and disappointments.

Each blues chorus has two rhyming lines. The first line is repeated twice and then answered by the last line. We will be writing four choruses today.

Write four choruses - 2 lines each

Chorus 1: Describe the frustrating circumstance.

 (2x) A A

Chorus 2: How are the people around you reacting?

 (2x) B B

Chorus 3: How will you overcome this problem?

 (2x) C C

Chorus 4: How will you feel when you overcome this problem?

 (2x) D D

Recommended video: How to Write Your First Rap

This template was inspired by the song-story approach in this video. Scan the QR code for more ideas.

